Advocacy or Support Person Request Form

About advocacy and support at Proactive Behaviour Support

Proactive Behaviour Support recognises our role in helping to improve the quality of life of our Clients through advocacy, representation and support. This occurs through advocating on the Client's behalf and helping them to access the necessary services to help them improve their quality of life.

Clients accessing our services may nominate a representative or support person of their choice to provide support. Examples of representatives or support persons include parents, elders, relatives or legal representatives. Such support persons need to complete the form below to confirm the nomination.

The Client can also expect Proactive Behaviour Support to advocate on their behalf or to help them access a service that will help advocate on their behalf if requested.

Role of Support Person or Advocate

This support person or advocate may support the Client in his or her contact with Proactive Behaviour Support including in the following ways:

- providing assistance with communication
- ensuring information is understood
- attending to the Client's personal support needs
- being a point of contact
- ensuring the Client's best interests are represented

Privacy and confidentiality

Proactive Behaviour Support will uphold their Client's privacy and confidentiality in accordance with our Privacy and Dignity Policy.

Proactive Behaviour Support will not discuss personal matters without the individual's prior consent or whilst the individual accessing the service is not present.

Proactive Behaviour Support advocacy

Proactive Behaviour Support will help advocate on the Client's behalf or can help the Client to access an appropriate advocacy service. In the event of a conflict of interest between one of our Workers and the Client, the Client has the option to use an advocate from a third party to eliminate any conflict of interest.
